UNIT 2: PERSEVERANCE

ANCHOR: Perseverance is never giving up, even when the task is hard.

ACTION POINT #1: Perseverance means you are committed to your goals.

CONVERSATION STARTERS:

1. What goal did the crew have as they went back to the ruins?
2. What is a goal you have this week at home or school?
3. What is a goal we can set as a family?

FAMILY ACTIVITY:

Talk about a goal that can be set at home by everyone in the family. Have each person write out his or her goal and decorate it! Hang it up somewhere obvious as a reminder, and spend time working on these goals throughout the week.

UNIT 2: PERSEVERANCE

ANCHOR: Perseverance is never giving up, even when the task is hard.

ACTION POINT #3: Perseverance means sometimes you need to change how you do something.

CONVERSATION STARTERS:

1. Why was the Crew frustrated when they got their belongings to the ruins?
2. What did the Crew have to do to make things work for them?
3. What is something you are working on that is hard, but might be easier if you tried a different way?

FAMILY ACTIVITY:

Select a job or routine at home that typically does not go smoothly (bedtime, cleanup, homework, etc.) and think of something creative like changing location or adding a step that is out of the ordinary to see if that makes it easier.

UNIT 2: PERSEVERANCE

ANCHOR: Perseverance is never giving up, even when the task is hard.

ACTION POINT #2: Perseverance is not giving up when things get difficult.

CONVERSATION STARTERS:

1. Where did Captain and Kiwi end up after they entered the doorway of the ruins? (Hint: Ask about a trap.)
2. What did Piper find written on the wall?
3. What is something you are working on right now that is really difficult?

FAMILY ACTIVITY:

Choose a task at home that is normally difficult to do. Make a task competition where everyone works on the tasks together! Present a Perseverance Award to those who don't give up and finish their task by the end of the week!

UNIT 2: PERSEVERANCE

ANCHOR: Perseverance is never giving up, even when the task is hard.

ACTION POINT #4: Perseverance means you focus on looking forward, not behind you.

CONVERSATION STARTERS:

1. Who is Dr. Flint, and why is she on the island?
2. What did the Crew and Dr. Flint decide to do? (Hint: Ask about exploring.)
3. Name something positive you can look ahead to, that will help you persevere right now.

FAMILY ACTIVITY:

Go out for a walk in the neighborhood. At first try walking backwards and see how everyone does. Then, turn around a walk forward. Talk about why it is easier to move forward than backward when you are able to see where you are going.
